Seminoe Dam, surrounded by the wildest and most rugged scenery imaginable, is part of the Kendrick project designed to irrigate 35,000 acres of land and provide 45,000 h. p. in electricity. The Dam is about 265 feet high and 540 wide. It impounds over 1,000,000 acre feet of water, forming a lake a great many miles in length.

SANBORN SOUVENIR CO., DENVER, COLO.

POST CARD

PLACE
STAMP
HERE

OB19-N

1042—Seminoe Dam and Lake on the North Platte River, Northeast of Rawlins and Southwest of Casper, Wyoming